

Psalm 71:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

Analysis

The plea 'Cast me not off in the time of old age' addresses the fear of abandonment when strength fails. 'Forsake me not when my strength faileth' acknowledges aging's vulnerability. This prayer rests on God's covenant faithfulness—He who began the work will complete it (Philippians 1:6). The aged believer's confidence isn't in sustained vigor but in God's unchanging commitment. Physical decline doesn't diminish divine faithfulness.

Historical Context

Ancient cultures often neglected the elderly and infirm, making old age precarious without family support. God's character as faithful protector contrasted sharply with human fickleness toward the weak.
