

Psalm 72:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

Analysis

The statement 'all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him' universalizes submission. Not some but ALL kings and nations acknowledge his supremacy. This points beyond any historical king to Christ's ultimate authority (Revelation 19:16—King of Kings). Service rendered to Him isn't oppressive slavery but the freedom and joy of serving the rightful Lord. His reign alone deserves universal allegiance.

Historical Context

No Israelite king ever achieved literal worldwide rule. This prophetic language deliberately exceeds historical possibility, pointing to the Messiah's eschatological reign over all earthly powers.
