

Psalms 72:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

Analysis

The king 'shall judge the poor of the people' and 'save the children of the needy,' demonstrating God's heart for the vulnerable. 'Break in pieces the oppressor' shows that protecting the weak requires confronting the powerful who exploit them. True justice isn't neutral but actively defends those unable to defend themselves. Christ embodies this perfectly, lifting the lowly and humbling the proud (Luke 1:52-53), ultimately destroying all oppression at His return.

Historical Context

Ancient kings often exploited rather than protected the poor. God's ideal king reversed this pattern, making care for the vulnerable the measure of righteous rule (Jeremiah 22:15-16).
