

Psalms 73:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

Analysis

---

The confession deepens: 'So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.' The psalmist acknowledges his animal-like perspective—focused only on immediate, temporal realities like brute beasts. Lacking eternal perspective reduced him to creature-level thinking, unable to comprehend God's purposes. This humility prepares for restored relationship. Admitting foolishness is the first step toward wisdom (Proverbs 9:10). Only by recognizing we've thought like beasts can we begin thinking as God's image-bearers.

Historical Context

---

The biblical worldview distinguishes humans (created in God's image, capable of eternal perspective) from beasts (focused only on immediate needs). Sin reduces humans to beast-level existence; grace restores image-bearer capacity.

Related Passages

---

John 15:13 — Greatest form of love

1 Corinthians 13:4 — Characteristics of love

Study Questions

---

1. In what ways do you sometimes think like a 'beast'—focused only on immediate, temporal concerns?

2. How does humble acknowledgment of foolishness and ignorance prepare you for spiritual growth?
3. What differences should characterize human thinking (image of God) versus beast thinking (merely creature)?

Interlinear Text

---

|         |                   |       |                           |                         |            |          |
|---------|-------------------|-------|---------------------------|-------------------------|------------|----------|
| וְאֵנִי | כִּי עֵר          | וְלֹא | אֵדָע                     | כִּי הֵמָּה זֹת         | הִיא יְהִי | עִמָּךְ: |
| H589    | So foolish | H3808 | was I and ignorant | I was as a beast | H1961      | H5973    |
|         | H1198             |       | H3045                     | H929                    |            |          |

Additional Cross-References

---

Ecclesiastes 3:18 (Parallel theme): I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

Psalms 49:10 (Parallel theme): For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

Psalms 92:6 (Parallel theme): A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

Isaiah 1:3 (Parallel theme): The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

Psalms 32:9 (Parallel theme): Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

Proverbs 30:2 (Parallel theme): Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.