

Psalms 73:27

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

Analysis

The contrast with verse 25's devotion is stark: 'For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.' Distance from God means destruction. 'Go a whoring' uses adultery imagery for idolatry—loving anything more than God. This spiritual adultery warrants judgment. The psalm resolves: proximity to God brings life (v. 28); distance brings death. Eternal destinies hinge on relationship with God. Christ is the only way to the Father (John 14:6); those who reject Him remain 'far off' and perish.

Historical Context

Throughout Israel's history, spiritual adultery (idolatry) resulted in judgment—exile, foreign oppression, plague. Hosea's marriage illustrated God's faithfulness despite Israel's whoredom. Only through Christ can spiritual adultery be forgiven and intimacy restored.

Study Questions

---

1. What does it mean to be 'far from' God versus near to Him?
2. How is loving anything more than God a form of spiritual adultery?
3. What assurance do you have through Christ that you won't perish but have eternal life in God's presence?
