

Psalms 78:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

Analysis

---

Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation—the parallelism defines faith: believing ('āman, to be firm, established) must translate into trusting (bāṭaḥ, confident reliance). Israel gave intellectual assent without volitional commitment. The word yešû'â (salvation) shares the root with 'Jesus' (Yeshua)—they refused to trust the very deliverance God provided.

Hebrews 3:19 concludes: 'So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.' Faith isn't mental agreement but active trust that obeys. James 2:19 exposes demonic belief: 'You believe God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder!' True faith works (James 2:17), walks (2 Corinthians 5:7), and overcomes (1 John 5:4).

Historical Context

This verse diagnoses the root pathology behind all wilderness rebellions: functional atheism disguised as monotheism. They worshiped YHWH while trusting their own assessment more than His promises—the essence of unbelief.

Study Questions

1. Where do you 'believe' in God theoretically while refusing to 'trust' Him practically?
2. How does unbelief masquerade as prudence, wisdom, or reasonable caution in your decision-making?
