

Psalms 91:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

Analysis

God promises: "He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him" (Hebrew yaq-r'eni v-e'enehu immo-anokhi v-tzarah achalletze-hu va-akhab-dehu). Four divine commitments: answer prayer, accompany in trouble, deliver, and honor. The sequence progresses: God hears, God is present, God rescues, God exalts. The condition is calling upon God—prayer expressing dependence. This verse assures that those who dwell in God's presence (vv.1-2) will experience His intervention.

Historical Context

These promises echo throughout Scripture. God answered patriarchs, Moses, prophets, and apostles. "I will be with you" appears repeatedly (Genesis 28:15, Exodus 3:12, Joshua 1:9, Matthew 28:20). The pattern: those who call, God answers. Yet "deliverance" doesn't always mean immediate relief—sometimes God sustains through suffering (2 Corinthians 12:9). The ultimate "honor" comes at resurrection (Philippians 3:21).

Study Questions

1. How have you experienced God answering, accompanying, delivering, or honoring you?
2. What does it mean that God is "with you in trouble" even when He doesn't immediately remove it?
3. How does Christ's call from the cross (Matthew 27:46) and resurrection demonstrate God's pattern of hearing, accompanying, delivering, and honoring?
