

Psalms 92:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

Analysis

Being 'planted in the house of the LORD' indicates intentional, permanent positioning in God's presence and people. This is not casual attendance but deep-rooted commitment to worship and community. 'Flourish in the courts' emphasizes that spiritual vitality comes through connection to God's dwelling place. In Christian theology, believers are living stones in God's temple (1 Peter 2:5), permanently incorporated into His spiritual house through Christ.

Historical Context

The temple courts were where worshipers gathered, sacrifices were offered, and God's presence dwelled among His people. Being planted there meant living in constant awareness of God.

Study Questions

1. What does it mean practically to be 'planted' in God's house rather than being a casual visitor?

2. How does regular, committed participation in worship and Christian community contribute to your spiritual flourishing?
