

Psalms 94:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

Analysis

The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity (יְהוָה יָדַע מַחְשְׁבוֹת (אֲדָם כִּי־הֵמָּה הֶבֶל)—Divine omniscience penetrates human interior life. Machshavot (thoughts/plans) before Yahweh are hevel (vapor, breath, emptiness)—the same word used 38 times in Ecclesiastes for life's futility.

Paul quotes this verse in 1 Corinthians 3:20 during his rebuke of Corinthian factionalism around human wisdom. The self-congratulatory schemes of the wicked—and even believers' proud strategies—dissolve like morning mist before God's eternal counsel. This isn't mere intellectual humility but ontological reality: creature thoughts lack substance compared to Creator wisdom.

Historical Context

This verse directly addresses the psalmist's opponents who believe God neither sees nor cares (v. 7). The assertion of divine knowledge contradicts the practical atheism of Israel's oppressors who act as though human schemes operate autonomously.
