

Psalms 99:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

Analysis

Moses, Aaron, and Samuel exemplify leaders who 'called upon' God and received answers, demonstrating that God responds to His servants. These three represent different offices—prophet (Moses), priest (Aaron), and prophet-judge (Samuel)—showing that God hears various types of leaders. The phrase 'he answered them' (ya'anem) emphasizes God's responsiveness to prayer. This verse establishes the principle that God's holiness doesn't make Him distant but rather invites relationship through proper approach. Their intercession prefigures Christ's priestly mediation.

Historical Context

Moses interceded for Israel (Exodus 32), Aaron made atonement (Numbers 16:48), and Samuel prayed for the nation (1 Samuel 7:9)—all demonstrating God's faithfulness to answer prayer.
