

Revelation 7:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

Analysis

The final tribes sealed complete the picture of God's comprehensive redemption. The 144,000 symbolizes the church militant—still on earth, protected during tribulation. The seal (Greek 'sphragis') marks ownership and destination, like ancient shipping marks indicating cargo's owner and port. This sealing is the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-14), guaranteeing believers' preservation until final redemption. Reformed theology emphasizes that God's decree and the Spirit's sealing work together—those predestined are called, justified, and preserved to glorification (Romans 8:29-30). None sealed are lost.

Historical Context

The sealing imagery would resonate with first-century believers familiar with official seals denoting authority and ownership. Roman legal documents, property deeds, and imperial decrees all bore seals. Christians facing persecution needed assurance that their true identity and destiny were secured by divine seal, not threatened by earthly powers.
