

Titus 3:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Analysis

---

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject— αἵρετικὸν ἄνθρωπον (hairetikon anthrōpon, heretical/divisive man) μετὰ μίαν καὶ δευτέραν νουθεσίαν (meta mian kai deuteran nouthesian, after first and second admonition) παραιτοῦ (paraitou, reject/refuse/avoid). αἵρετικός (hairetikos, heretic) means one who creates factions/divisions through false teaching, not mere doctrinal error but church-splitting behavior.

The procedure:

1. first warning (νουθεσία, nouthesia, admonition)
2. second warning
3. rejection.

Matthew 18:15-17 provides parallel church discipline process. παραιτοῦ (paraitou) doesn't necessarily mean excommunication but avoiding fellowship and platform. Persistent divisive teachers must be silenced (1:11) and avoided after patient attempts at correction fail.

Historical Context

Early Christianity lacked centralized authority structures making heresy control difficult. Local elders bore responsibility for doctrinal protection. The two-warning procedure balanced patience (giving opportunity for repentance) with decisiveness

(protecting the flock). Later church history shows the danger of both laxity (tolerating destructive error) and harshness (Inquisitional abuse).

Study Questions

1. Does your church practice biblical church discipline, or does tolerance of error and division go unchecked?
2. How do you balance patience toward erring brothers with decisiveness toward persistent divisive false teachers?
3. What heretical or divisive people should you avoid after giving them opportunity to repent?
