

Zephaniah 2:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

Analysis

The LORD will be terrible unto them (nora YHWH aleihem)—'Terrible' (nora) means fearsome, awe-inspiring, even dreadful. This anticipates God's final revelation when every knee will bow (Philippians 2:10-11), not from love but from sheer terror for many.

For he will famish all the gods of the earth (ki razah et kol elohei ha'aretz)—'Famish' (razah) means to make lean, to starve. Without worshipers bringing offerings, pagan gods will 'starve.' This is biting satire: idols depend on humans for sustenance (Psalm 115:4-8), while YHWH needs nothing (Acts 17:25). Men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen—Universal worship is the eschatological goal. Malachi 1:11 and Revelation 7:9-10 envision this global homage.

Historical Context

This prophecy began fulfillment when Babylon destroyed Moabite/Ammonite temples and their gods proved impotent. Ultimate fulfillment awaits Christ's return, when 'the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea' (Habakkuk 2:14).

Study Questions

1. What does it mean that God will 'starve' false gods—how are idols dependent on their worshipers?
2. How does this prophecy of universal worship encourage missionaries and evangelists facing resistant cultures?
3. What contemporary 'gods' (ideologies, systems, values) does God's Word expose as powerless and doomed to 'famine'?
