

Christ as King

The Offices of Christ · Christology

Christ is the anointed King, heir to David's throne, yet His kingdom far surpasses any earthly monarchy. He is 'King of kings and Lord of lords,' exercising sovereign authority over all creation. His kingdom is 'not of this world'—not established by worldly power but by the Spirit's work in human hearts. Yet it is real, present (in the church), and future (in consummation). As King, He protects His people, conquers their enemies, and governs them by His Word and Spirit. Every knee shall bow to this King—willingly now in worship or unwillingly at judgment.
