

Christ as Prophet

The Offices of Christ · Christology

Christ fulfills the prophetic office as the ultimate revelation of God to humanity. Moses predicted a prophet like himself whom Israel must heed. Jesus is that Prophet—greater than Moses, for He is not merely a messenger but the Message itself, the Word made flesh. As Prophet, He reveals the Father perfectly ('He who has seen Me has seen the Father'), declares God's truth authoritatively, and pronounces divine judgment on sin. His prophetic ministry continues through His Spirit illuminating Scripture to His church. He is prophet not by calling but by nature—the eternal Word who makes the Father known.
