

Spiritual Gifts Given

The Gifts of the Spirit · Pneumatology

The Holy Spirit distributes spiritual gifts to every believer for the common good of the church. These gifts are not natural talents but supernatural endowments for ministry. The Spirit divides to every man severally as He wills—we do not choose our gifts, but we are to earnestly desire the best gifts. The purpose of gifts is not personal edification or display but building up the body of Christ. Every member has at least one gift; no member has all gifts. The diversity of gifts creates interdependence within the body.

1 Peter 4:10-11

As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as
