

The Fruit of the Spirit

The Gifts of the Spirit · Pneumatology

While gifts are what we do for God, fruit is what God produces in us—the character of Christ formed within. The fruit of the Spirit is singular—one cluster with nine manifestations: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance. This fruit stands in stark contrast to the works of the flesh. Fruit is not produced by human effort but by abiding in Christ—the branch cannot bear fruit of itself. Against such fruit there is no law—it is the fulfillment of all that the law required. The Spirit's fruit is the evidence of genuine salvation.
