

The Deity of Christ

God the Son · The Trinity

Jesus Christ is not merely a great teacher, prophet, or even the highest created being—He is God incarnate, the second person of the Trinity clothed in human flesh. Scripture ascribes to Him every divine attribute: eternity, omniscience, omnipotence, omnipresence, immutability. He receives worship, forgives sins, and claims equality with the Father. Thomas's confession 'My Lord and my God' represents the proper response to the risen Christ. The deity of Christ is not an optional doctrine but the foundation upon which Christianity stands—if Christ is not God, His sacrifice cannot atone for sins, and Christianity collapses.

Key Verses

John 20:28

And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

Titus 2:13

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Hebrews 1:8

But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

John 10:30

I and my Father are one.

Philippians 2:6

Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God.

Colossians 2:9

For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

Romans 9:5

Of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

1 John 5:20

And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

From KJV Study • kjevstudy.org