

The Father's Plan

The Trinity in Redemption · The Trinity

The triune God works harmoniously in redemption, with each person playing a distinct role. The Father is the architect of salvation, planning redemption before the foundation of the world. He chose a people for Himself, predestined them to adoption, and sent His Son as the appointed Redeemer. The Father's eternal decree set in motion the entire drama of redemption. He gave the Son a people to save, promising that none of them would be lost. This sovereign purpose originates in the Father's love and wisdom, ensuring that salvation is not a divine afterthought but the unfolding of an eternal plan.

Key Verses

Ephesians 1:3-5

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.

1 Peter 1:20

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you.

John 6:37

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

Acts 2:23

Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain.

Romans 8:29-30

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son... Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

From KJV Study • kjevstudy.org